Rabbi's Message

This evening we are privileged to be able to celebrate as a community the theme of “T'nu Kavod (“Coivid”) laTorah” "Give Honor to the Torah," by honoring our Ba'alei Kriah during Covid: Eric, Abie and Aharon Banks and Yoel, Elad, and Avishai Jeselsohn. The Banks and Jeselsohn families have gone above and beyond the call of duty in maintaining Kriat HaTorah in our shul during these challenging circumstances.

Our high regard for the Banks and Jeselsohns is reflected in the many messages found in the following pages of the ad book and at tonight's event. These are richly deserved tributes to outstanding individuals who have impacted shul life through their tireless efforts on behalf of our community during extraordinary times.

At this time, it is appropriate to express our thanks and appreciation to those responsible for the success of our ad book and dinner.

A debt of gratitude goes to our ad book chairperson Rick Gopen for organizing this successful project and to the Ad Book solicitation team Ethlynn Brickman, Judah Cohen, Bruce Gillers, Rich Pomper, Mark Salzberg, Jack Schuss and Ross Zilber. Of course, as always, we thank Jeff and Lisa Bellin for their time and energy in typesetting and laying out the entire ad book that has resulted in significant financial gain for the shul.

Special thanks also go to Sherri Cohen and Israela Kahan, our Event Committee co-chairs for planning and arranging this year's event. Thank you as well to Wendy Fine for producing the wonderful video for this evening's event. Thank you to Dan Goldish for his setting up and maintaining the web pages for ad submissions and thank you to Humi Vishniavsky for his photography.

Thanks go to each and every one of you who continue to help maintain our shul as a vibrant center of Jewish life and learning, fostering the goals of Torah throughout the community. May Hashem grant all of us health and vigor to continue this effort of serving Hashem and Klal Yisroel.

Rabbi Gershon Segal

President's Message

As President it is my pleasure to bring greetings on behalf of the congregation. This past year has continued the unprecedented challenge to what is meant by community. We, like other communities around the globe, had to adapt to a world where we could no longer celebrate with each other in the joys of life or console each other in times of sorrow. But despite the physical limitations placed upon us we have continued as a community. Most importantly, we have been able to reopen for the Yom Tovim, Succot, Pesach and Shavuot as well as daily Shachrit, Mincha and Maariv and three minyanim every Shabbat. We would not have been able to accomplish this without the devotion of our Honorees. Their dedication has allowed our community to continue public Kavod L'Torah for which we will be forever grateful.

It is therefore my honor to be able to wish everyone well and feel joy as we continue onward toward normal.

Ken Snow
President, Congregation Beth El - Atereth Israel

Dinner Committee

Welcome to the Congregation Beth El Atereth Israel 2021 Annual Dinner. Tonight we are privileged to honor members from two special families whose efforts have benefited all of us especially during this past very difficult year.

Eric, Abie, and Aharon Banks and Yoel, Elad, and Avishai Jeselsohn have maintained Kriat HaTorah in our shul during a pandemic when individuals were not leaving their homes. Both families are integral to Newton, as they have a nearly 130 years combined experience of living in Newton and belonging to Beth El. Moreover, they have actively engaged in the shul's daily and Shabbat minyanim, as well as Bnei Akiva, Teen Minyan, and other community-wide events. These individuals are special role models not only for their own families, but for our entire community. We are very proud of Elad, Avishai, Aharon and Abie who we have watched grow up in our shul. Elad spent a year in Israel studying at Gush and is now in his second year at YU. Avishai will be studying in Israel next year at Gush and then heading to MIT. Aharon and Abie are in 9th grade at Yeshiva Ohr Yisroel. All the boys have celebrated their semachot in our very own Beth El. We are also very appreciative of Rinath and Tamar who have enabled their husbands and sons to spend many countless hours learning the leining and leining for multiple minyanim each shabbat and chag this year.

We would also like to thank all the people who have helped with this year's ad book starting with Rick Gopen, the ad book chair, with his stellar team: Ross Zilber, Judah Cohen, Bruce Gillers, Jack Schuss, Rich Pomper. Mark Salzberg, Jeff and Lisa Bellin, and Ethlyne Brickman. Thank you to Dan Goldish for all of his tech support and to Humi Vishniavsky for his photographs of the honorees.

A big thank you to Wendy Fine for creating the video for this special evening, and for giving of her time to interview our honored guests.

Thank you to Moshe and Debbie in the shul office for their tireless work for our shul every day and especially for all their work in making tonight's event come together so well.

And, of course, thank you to Rabbi Segal for his leadership, his attention to detail, and his own activism for our community and all of Israel, tonight and every night.

Finally, many thanks to all of you for joining us tonight both in person and virtually to celebrate these two wonderful families.

*A good life hath its number of days;
But a good name continueth forever.
The wise man shall inherit confidence among his people,
And his name shall live forever.
These indeed were men of mercy.
Whose righteous deeds have not been forgotten.
Their seeds shall remain forever,
And their glory shall not be blotted out.
Their bodies were buried in peace
And their names liveth to all generations.
People will declare their wisdom,
And the congregation tolleth out their praise.*
